The Laborde Co,

Opp. Howland's

1044 Main Street

A GRO IP OF ABOUT 25 $ 3.75 SAMPLE WASH SUITS

Certain About It.

couple of cowpunchers found themselves guests in the home of a minister of the gospel whose custom was to hold family worship of a morning and to conclude the same by asking each one present to give some quotation from the Scriptures. One after another repeated some text until at last it came the turn of Jim Bulstoke of "My dear young friend," said the dominie as he saw the latter hesitating, "surely can recall some verse from the Bible?"

Jim's face was bathed with profuse perspiration, but at last there came to him some approximation of a memory of something he had read or heard at some stage of his life about the first chapter of Genesis. At last he broke out, "God made the world." The dominie lifted a hand to hide a sudden smile, but bowed to Jim's neighbor in the circle. Curley was even worse off than Jim had been and for the life of him could not think of anything. At last, remembering the occasional virtue of a good bluff, he twisted one foot around his chair leg and, with all the confidence he could muster, remarked, "He shore did!"-

Last English King In a Battle.

The battle of Dettingen, in Bavaria

Marshal Noailles, which resulted in the victory of the allied troops, was the last occasion on which an English king fought on the battlefield. His majesty continued the whole time in the heat of all the action, which was said by those who witnessed it to have se had worn at Oudenarde, thirty-five years before, taking his place at the nead of the seven battalions of guards.

About noon he ordered a general advance, and during the movements it entailed he was very nearly taken by the enemy, but was rescued by the Twenty-second regiment, who, in remembrance, wore a sprig of oak in their caps upon the anniversary of the battle for many years afterward.-Lon-

The Children of the Great.

There is a tendency for children of the average stock. Galton terms this tendency filial regression. This, the London hospital points out, applies equally to exceptional physical and mental characters. Thus, though tall stature may run in certain families, yet there is always a tendency to re vert to the mean average size. Similarly the children of a genius_tend to have somewhat less than their father's power, but more than the average of the race. According to Professor Pearson, distinguished parents are just ten times more likely to have distinguished offspring that undistinguished parents.

Still, such cases as the Darwins, faher and sons; the two Pitts, Philip and Alexander the Great are exceptional.

Similarly also the children of a criminal tend to be less vicious than the father, though morally inferior to the

Why He Was Unpopular.

When first made bishop of Stepney

Dr. Winnington Ingram was anything but popular and indeed had occa sionally to seek police protection.

Greatly worried, the bishop tried to trace the cause and found one lady

"It's your white shirt, sir," she said

"We don't want no white shirted gentry here. Try a gray shirt and a dickey, like our chaps wear on Sun-

The advice tendered was promptly acted upon, and thus the present bishop of London made the first advance toward close friendship with his peo

The Codex Sinaiticus.

The most ancient of the New Testa the "Codex Sinaiticus," published at the expense of Alexander II. of Rus sia since the Crimean war. This codex covers nearly the whole of the Old and New Testaments and was discovered in the Convent of St. Catherine on Mount Sinal by the celebrated

Tischendorf. It is generally ascribed to the fourth century. - New York

Why He Is Solid.

"How can you tell he is solid with the firm? Does he come in late and

"No; he comes in early and goes away late."—Buffalo Express ple.-London Graphic.

American.

go away early?"

who was able to enlighten him.

average man.

the Crowfoot ranch.

Once upon a time, not so long

This Modest price for trim Suits of Linen and Kep that hold values up to $10.

The making is substantial—the goods dependable—the styles correct. And the comfort they afford cannot be measured by the Low Selling Price.

Store Closed All Day Monday

JAPANESE LANTERNS

for home, cottage or yacht. Our first direct importation from Japan. Pleasing prices for popular sizes at

JACKSON'S BOOK SHOP, 986-988 MAIN STREET

CORRIGAN GUESSED RIGHT; FOUND KNIFE

Pissuto, the bootblack arby Officer Corrigan was not put al to-day, but will be held pendnents into the condition of m Louis Fasciano, who is now Vincent's hospital. Officer Corabout day break, yesterday, ing. discovered some important mee in this case by finding, in the yard at Harrison street and Fairwenne, where he arrested Pissuto.

Jack knife with a long siender When Corrigan arrested Pizwho is a very large man, Monvening, Pissuto jostied Corrigan Corrigan thought Pissuto had hed, but had his suspicions. He red them up yesterday morning are rewarded by finding the knife of Pissuto, Corrigan thought he he had go over the fence.

Fourth of July was celebrated Beardsley street by the arrival eight pound baby boy at the of Mr. and, Mrs. H. J. Cox. Constions are now in order as this first to grace this happy home. For was Miss Christine Berthelmeriy a teacher in the Grand school. BOY FOR MR. COX.

world in which pig iron will be juced on a commercial scale is it to be installed in Norway.

In the railroad fill in New Jersey is made by dumping earth from which are run out on a track and by cables from two towers.

In this city, July 6th, Wilcox Thompson in his Friends are invited to attend the ineral at the residence of his moth-t. Mrs. Curtis Thompson, No. 752 ark avenue on Friday 9th inst., at

DOWN.—In this city on Tuesday, been as fierce a conflict as had ever been known.

On the morning of the battle the Solice of funeral hereafter.
P 7 a*

RDAN.—In this city, July 7, Johanah Walsh, wife of Dennis Jordan, Me Wallace street.

Notice hereafter.

N

THE PARK CEMETERY

nd in North Bridgeport, and ridges. Carriage entra legistreet, or cars from Reservoir me. Improved lots for sale on terms. Two telephones at Ceme-Buperintendent's Office, 975; Su-mondant's House, 514, or City Of-300 Court Exchange, Telephone and polishing tools.

MONUMENTS ARTISTIC -- LASTING.

RUGHES & CHAPMAN see STRATFORD AVENUE.

MEDDING BOUOUETS ..... and ..... DECORATIONS

JOHN RECK & SON Tel. 759-3. 985 MAIN STREET

NOTICE.

Taken by virtue of an execution to me directed, and will be sold at public vendue to the highest bidder, at he public sign-post in the City of Bridgeport fourteen days after date, which will be on Wednesday, the wenty-first day of July, 1909, at 2 volcek in the afternoon, to satisfy aid execution and my fees thereon, the following described property to rit: Two horses, one wagon, one lesk, one safe, harness, two scales, unsage machinery, engine and boiler. Dated at Bridgeport, this 7th day of ruly, 1909.

Sheriff of the City of Bridgeport.

VEST END THEATRE

Street, Between Clinton and Colorado Avenue N. C. LUND, Prop.

MOTHER: SEDUCER MUST STAND TRIAL

GIRL CRIES FOR

Annetta Kenny Cannot Obtain Consent of Parent to Marry Man of Her Choice.

With cries of "Mother come to me and take me from this awful place," pretty Anneta Kenny made the halls of police headquarters resound this morning. She had just been shut within the cell room after a hearing in the city court, and the thought that she was behind the bars and separated from her mother caused her to weep and cry out hysterically. Mrs. Kenny did come to her, but was allowed to talk only through the bars. Anneta wished to be let out so that she might talk to her mother and gain the moth-er's consent to her marriage to John Ryan, with whom she has been living in Norwalk as Mrs. Ryan.

Their cases were quickly disposed of in the city court. Ryan is held until Monday next under bonds of $1,000 on the charge of seduction. Miss Helen King departed with Anneta Kenny this afternoon for Heriford where the will King departed with Anneta Kenny this afternoon for Hartford where she will place her charge in the House of the Good Shepherd. Before leaving Anneta made known her future whereabouts to her lover who was locked in a cell downstairs. She discovered that an unused drainage pipe passed through Ryan's cell below and that by calling down through it she could console Ryan and receive what con-console Ryan and receive what con-solation he had to offer. "Are you locked in, John?" she asked, and then: "If they ever let me out of this terrible place I'll tear the eyes out of that step-mother of yours. What did she complain of us for, when she lived with her husband for over a year before she married him?"

Ryan stoutly maintains that he in-tends to marry the Kenny girl, who is but seventeen years of age, just as soon as he has money enough. For the past two weeks they have been the past two weeks they have been living together in Norwalk, where Ryan has been earning $3 a day as a painter. He formerly lived in Elm street, this city, and has known the Kenny girl some time. The girl in the case is rather wayward, having been in the hands of the probation officer about a year ago when her mother claimed that she could not keep her ficer about a year ago when her mother claimed that she could not keep her off the streets at night.

The police are very much agitated over the large number of bicycle thefts reported to them so far to-day. During the past few weeks the thefts have been numerous, but to-day five were reported: From Baritoli Austin, 765 Broad street; Georg B. Taylor, 220 Frank street; W. S. Cornwall, 270 Nobl avenue; Emma Gale, 225 Howard avenue; and James Gross, 254 Lexington avenue.

ton avenue.

All the wheels were reported as in good condition. The police believe that any persons leaving wheels on the curbs are taking a chance when they do not have them secured as any one is apt to ride off on them at any moon the 16th (27th O. S.) of June, 1743, between the British, Hanoverian and Hessian troops (52,000 men), under command of George II., and the French troops (60,000 men), under the interior. It sounded as though a full vaudeville concert was in progress and the organ was pealing forth the delightful strains of "Merrily We Roll Along", "I Love My Wife, But Oh You Kid", and "How Dry I Am." A police officer was summoned by the men and every delinquent home goer was prassed into service. They entered the church and found the organ open but the mysterious musician had disappeared. A search was instituted ed as though a appeared. A search was instituted out no trace could be found of the

POPULAR AIRS EMITTED FROM CHURCH ORGAN

Automobile of Mr. Button Injures Joseph

exceptional parents to regress toward High Board Fence Obstructed View-Machine Was Moving Slowly.

Michael Joseph, aged 22, employed in one of the West End factories, was run down by an automobile owned by E. W. Button, the jeweler, at the corner of Iranistan avenue and Admiral street about 12:30 this afternoon, but was not injured seriously. It was found that he had contused bruises on the left arm and chest.

arm and chest. Joseph at the time was riding a bicycle. The auto at the time was go-ing slowly, turning into Iranistan from Admiral. Joseph was coming along Irepistan close to the gutter when struck. There is a high fence right near the corner which obstructed the view of the occupants of the car and the bicycle rider. Mr. Button after the injured man was removed in the ambulance called at police headquarters, saying that he would see to it that Joseph would be well cared for.

HAT PRESIDENT IN COURT ON AN ASSAULT CHARGE

(Special from United Press.)
South Norwalk, July 7.—John W.
Murray, local president of the Hat Makers' Union and Conrad Ryan Makers' Union and Conrad Ryan, a member of the union, were arraigned in the police court to-day, the former in the police court to-day, the former on the charge of using abusive language and the latter on the double charge of assault and using abusive language. The cases were continued until Saturday. The men were arrested last night on the complaint of Frank Hubbell, a Union Hatter who went to work last week in the non-union shop of Crofut & Knapp. Hub-bel stated that on his way from the shop last night the men stopped him and after upbraiding him for his ac-tion, Ryan struck him.

ment manuscripts is the one known as TARIFF BILL IS READY TO PASS THIS AFTERNOON

(Special from United Press.)
Washington, July 7.—The Senate made such rapid progress with the tariff bill to-day that Senator Aldrich shortly after noon announced that he expected that the bill would pass within a few hours. There is a rumor in circulation that when the bill goes to conference the corporation tax will be reduced from 2 to 1 per cent. and that an inheritance tax of the same amount

After the various reservations had been made all amendments not thus withheld were agreed to, without opposition.

PRESIDENT TALKS RELIGION TODAY EARLY CLOSING BILL

MAKES ADDRESS TO STUDENTS OF CATHOLIC SUMMER SCHOOL

At Champlain Celebration

Cardinal Gibbons, Governor Hughes Ambassadors Bryce and Jusserand, Governor Prouty, Also Delivered Addresses-Taft and Other Distinguished Guests Shake Hands With Squaws and Papooses.

(By R. H. Hazard, Staff Correspondent United Press.) Hotel Champlain, Clinton County N. Y., July 7 .- Escorted by the President of the United States, Governor Hughes of New York, Governor Prouty of Vermont and scores of other celebrities including Ambassador Bryce of England and Ambassador Jusserand of France, the celebration of the three hundredth anniversary of the discovery of Lake Champlain moved to-day to Plattsburgh. Yesterday the pageant and the oratory centered around the rulns of old Fort Ticon-deroga while to-morrow the speech making will be let loose at Burling-ton errors the lake ton, across the lake.

The exercises to-day began at Cliff Haven, the Catholic summer school of America where President Taft delivered an address to the students. The President was introduced to the big crowd in the auditorium by Governor Hughes.

President Taft's speech to the Cath-olic students declares religious toler-ance in the United States was only 20 ance in the United States was only 20 or 25 years old. "We are reaching a point where we are more tolerant." he said. "Religious tolerance is a modern institution. We of Puritanical ancestry believe we were the inventors of religious tolerance and religious liberty. As a matter of fact, we wanted religious liberty for ourselves and wanted everybody else to worship exactly as we did.
"Fifty years ago if we had sent a representative to the vatican it would have given rise to severest criticism. It fell to my lot to make an important journey some time ago and ticism. It fell to my lot to make an important journey some time ago and I claim the distinction of being the only representative from the United States to the vatican.

"There I had the great pleasure to meet that distinguished statesman and pontiff Leo XIII. I had expected to find him only a figurehead whose acts were directed by the Cardinals. I was agreeably surprised to find him, at ninety-two, in active control of the Church. He was also able to stand and address for more than twenty minutes. We did not succeed in settling matters then exactly as we tling matters then exactly as we wished but we made progress. When

I left the Pope said:
"You have not got exactly what you want in exactly the way you want it, but I am going to send to the Philippines a representative who will settle things in accordance with the wishes of the government of the United States."

"And things were settled all right and every question since then has been settled with justice and saneness to each side."

to each side."

President Taft paid a high compliment to Governor Hughes, congratulating New York on having a Governor who "represents the people."

"I'm great on the Philippines," he said "and know very little about anything else. Still I hope a little talk about them will not be out of place," he said in conclusion.

(Special from United Press.)

Waterbury, July 7.—At an early bour today two good citizens were strolling leisurely toward their homes when on passing the Second Congregational church they were startled by strains of music coming from a pipe organ in the interior. It sounded as though a making and they thought they ought making and they thought they ought to be the big guns.

But after a conference if has been decided here as at Washington the Ambassadors should be given the first place after the guest of honor and the host. The President is guest of honor and Governor Hughes is host. Therefore, Governor Prouty and the Canadian representatives are to trail in hedian representatives are to trail in be-hind Jusserand and Bryce.

Following these exercises the President and the other distinguished visitors inspected the wigwams of the visitors inspected the wigwams of the Indians who are taking part in the pageant and shook hands with the squaws and papooses. Then the Presdent reviewed the dress parade of the regular troops and the New York National Guardsmen who are encamped at the famous old Piattsburgh barracks. Immediately after the dress parade, President Taft and Governors Hughes and Prouty. Ambassadors Jusserand

President Taft and Governors Hughes and Prouty, Ambassadors Jusserand and Bryce and others, delivered speeches eulogizing the pioneers who blazed their ways through the forests three hundred years ago.

In the evening a banquet in honor of rPesident Taft will be given in the Hotel Champlain followed by a fireworks display on the Saranac River.

To-morrow President Taft will spend the day in Burlington and in the evening will start back to Washington. OPENING TODAY.

Fine Moving Picture Theatre in West End.

Tonight when the doors are throw open at the West End theatre. State street between Clinton and Colorado avenues, the public of Bridgeport will see one of the latest and up-to-date moving picture theatres. No money has been spared to make this theatre one of the finest. It has 450 comfortable opera chairs, has four exits and three 24-inch ventilators in the roof besides four oscillating electric fans which will make this the coolest theatre in the city. tre in the city. All the interior is fin-ished in metal which makes it abso-lutely fireproof. first show which takes place to-at seven o'clock will be excep-Every picture will be a feature picture and every one that appreclates good rictures cannot afford to miss this show tonight. James Bearns, one of the leading baritone singers in the city, has been engaged to sing the lat-est illustrated songs, while Miss Ida H. est illustrated songs, while mass Italia.

Lockert will play the piano.
N. C. Lund is the proprietor and manager of this fine new theatre and he says that he will exhibit only the

JUNE WAS HOTTEST KNOWN IN 37 YEARS

Weather Observer Jernings has som interesting facts concerning the month of June. The mean temperature was 68.5 degrees, which was 2 degrees higher than the mean temperature for this menth for the past 37 years. On June 24 and 25, 94 degrees was reached, which was the maximum temperature for the month, while June 19 showed the minimum of 46 degrees. The total precipitation for the month was 1.70 inches, which was a deficiency of 1.76 inches, from the month was a deficiency of 1.76 inches, from the month was 1.70 inches, which was a deficiency of 1.76 inches, from the month was 1.70 inches, from the month was 1.70 inches. inches from the normal precipitation. Thurder storms came on June 25, 27 and 28. There were 15 clear days, 9 partly cloudy and 6 cloudy. Southwest was the prevailing direction of the wind, but the 18th the wind blowing northwest had a velocity of 25 miles per hour.

WANT ADS. CENT A WORD.

SENATE TUKNS DUWN A MALIBRAN VICTORY

Vote is Then Reconsidered and Bill Sent to Calendar -Other Business

House and Senate.

(Special from United Press.) Hartford, July 7 .- The Senate met a 10:30 this morning and got through with a very full day's business.

For nearly three quarters of an hour it debated the resolution exempting Bantam Lake and its tributaries from the charter rights of the city of Wa-terbury to 'ake waters anywhere in Litchfield County and finally concurred with the House in passing the resolution. The Waterbury Senators put u a brave fight but on the only roll cal vote taken which was on, an amend-ment, only three other Senators stood with them. The saloon closing bill under which saloons must close at 10 o'clock in the evening which passed the House after the committee on excise had been turned down, came into the Senate today and Senator Radcliffe, chairman of that committee secured its rejection and the acceptance of the unfavorable report. Later on, however, the Senat reconsidered and tabled the bill for th calendar as had been originally agreed Among the matters which passed the Senate were the following: A New Ha: ven charter amendment in regard to the civil service; the appointment of H. Simons Mowbray of Washington Henry W. Farnum and Burton Mans-field of New Haven, members of the state commission of sculpture; the ap-propriations for a new building at the Connecticut Agricultural College; the incorporation of the St. John's Industrial School at Deep River; $75,000 appropriation for a nurses home at the Connecticut Hospital for the Insane at Middletown; $5,000 additional for St. Joseph's Hospital at Willimantic; $109.-200 for current expenses for the Nor-200 for current expenses for the Nor-wich Hospital for the Insane; $91,490 for the executive department for the next two years; and the amendment to the law concerning the salaries of savings bank presidents. When the Senate had passed the bill

When the Senate had passed the bill providing for $100,000 street paving bond issue for New Haven, Senator Blakeslee moved that it be immediately transmitted to the engrossing clerk and this was done.

The House to-day refused to make the Southern New England Telephone bonds legal investments for savings banks by a vote of 132 to 35. The committee on banks had reported the measure favorably and made as good a fight as possible under the circuma fight as possible under the circum stances for its passage, but from al over the Houses one member after an-other attacked the company until it was strange that a single vote in fa-vor of the bill should have been re-

The Old Lyme-Old Saybrook bridge bill, providing for a half million toll bridge over the Connecticut river near its mouth which has already passed the Senate, was passed by the House after the latter body refused to make the bond issue $700,000 and include in this proposition another toll bridge between East Haddam and Haddam. The House extended the time within which the Connecticut Company may build its new line to Lighthouse Point build its new line to Lighthouse Point in New Haven. Among other measures which passed the House were the following: an appropriation of $12,000 for a new building for the Mystic Oral School a provision for the correction of errors in the Connecticut Civil War Roster; an appropriation of $3,000 to be used in connection with the acceptance of the equestrian statue of Lafayette to be presented to the state by Paul Whalen Bartlett; and a charter amendment for the Bridgeport Gas Light Company to permit it to extend into Fairfield and Stratford.

After the charter amendment of the After the charter amendment of the Uhcas Power Company had been very by came Miss Paton. As usual, she bitterly attacked in the House that body turned the bill down.

Sang, then Braham followed, and finally came Miss Paton. As usual, she was heartily received. Then Mailbran body turned the bill down.

MAYOR WILL

Mayor Lee to-day notified the mem-bers of the Mayors' Association of the state that he would entertain them here at a meeting any time this month they desired. A dinner will be held which will be at the expense of

BANK FORECLOSES ON PROPERTY OF CHARLES HOUGH

The Bridgeport Savings Bank through their attorney, John W. Banks, today foreclosed upon the property of Charles Hough un two mortages aggregating $15,000. The foreclosure is one of the largest that has been filed at the town clerk's office for some time.

upon it the beautiful mansion now oc cupied by Mr. Hough and formerly oc-cupied by Mrs. Cruttenden. The second mortgage includes two pieces of property, one with a frontage of 125 feet on Ann street and 297 feet on Was singing Italian; now she sang Spanish, terview avenue, and the other with 239 feet on Stratford avenue and 239 feet northerly on Hough avenue.

CITY COURT CASES

Out on Cherry street in the West End where the foreign element holds sway, Monday was selected as the wedding day for a certain happy cou-ple and a choice collection gathered to honor the bride. Among the prominent citizens present were Frank Czizmadi, Frank Kolon, John Koctek, Michael Zalik, Frank Czhauzer, and Ivon Kutzik. These wedding guests were celebrating the occasion in proper style when ancient mariner Officer McCarthy happened along with Officer McCarthy happened along with Officer Dalley, ancient mariner number two They were received in anything but hospitable style, but after a while managed to suppress what they term-ed a riot, but which the participants characterized as a "love fest." In the city court this morning Judge Wilder fined Kolon $1 and costs for breach of peace, and sent him to jail for 15 days for resisting an officer, and Zalik shared a similar fate. Mike Czhauzer whose name indicates that he had senething to do with the Canterbury tabs, was fined $5 and costs. Cziz-madi was fined $1 and costs and given ten days in jail.

ALDERMANIC BAKE SCHEDULED. As a result of a resolution introduced at the meeting of the Common Council last evening by Alderman Louis Brock the board of Aldermen will hold a clam bake at the Courtland club in Black Rock, Thursday, July 22. Athletic events have been planned to make the occacsion one long to be re

Japan is granting subsidies to all fishing boats using internal combustion engines for auxiliary power.

The flower of the tea plant gives a sweeter infusion than the leaf, containing only about one-half as much

The Great Singer's Lively Debut In an English City.

in SHE DEFIED THE DIRECTORS.

Considering That She Had Been Shabbily Treated, Malibran Sang as Long as She Wanted to and Had a Most Satisfactory Revenge.

Quarrels between opera singers and managers call to mind an incident in the life of Malibran. It was in 1829, when Malibran returned to England from New York and made her debut at Birmingham at the music festival as Malibran Garcia, Miss Paton had already become a favorite there and was allowed to choose her own songs and sing as many as she pleased, whereas Malibran was compelled to sing only what was assigned to her. Garcia bore the indignity with such patience as she could command until one morning she saw the announcement that Miss Paton would sing six songs that evening and that she would sing but two. Then it was that realizing that much of her success for the season in England depended on her having a better place in the for waist. program, she stormed the directors.

In vain the directors endeavored to avoid receiving her, but she made short work of ceremony, and while they were framing an excuse to pacify her she broke in upon them in a magnificent rage. In a jiffy she asked the chairman: "Sir, have you sanctioned this program?" And, receiving a nod in the affirmative, she sailed along further. "I had hoped," she said, "it had been issued without your sanction, for it assigns me two songs, both of which are hackneyed, while it gives my rival, Miss Paton, six. She has an established reputation here. Mine is yet to make, at least with your English andiences and therefore if any preference should be given to any one it should be to me. On my success here depends all chance of my success in London. You forget this or do not care. You give me no chance of success, whereas all I want is justice. I want the same opportunity for displaying my ability as you allow Miss Paton. Here you advertise me for Romeo. But I performed that last night, and the public will say, 'Romeo on Monday, Romeo on Tuesday, Romeo on Wednesday-Romeo, Rome she can do nothing but Romeo.' want fair play-no more, no less!"

Well, it was a great fuss. The directors endeavored to soothe her, for she had talked herself into a great passion, but they made their mistake in pointing to the fact that the program was printed and could not be changed. In vain Malibran argued that she performance commenced. Some one sang, then Braham followed, and finalcame forward amid many plaudits, undoubtedly agitated at the applaus and stood for a minute with her arms DINE MAYORS folded and her eyes on the ground.

There was a piano near the footlights, and the music stool stood at the back of the stage. Malibran stood near the piano, but did not touch a key, while in a manner until then unknown in England she warbled the well known aria "Una voce poce fa." Peal followed peal of applause, and when the conductor came to lead Malibran away the cries of encore were so oud as to make him retreat, and again Malibran was in the hands of the aulience.

For some time the applause continned and finally died away. When all was silence Malibran started up suddenly, made a pretty obeisance, hastily ran to the back part of the stage and been filed at the town clerk's office for some time. One mortgage was for $11,000 given by the bank to Frances H. Cruttenden, sister of Mr. Hough, in 1895. The other was for $5,000, also given to Mrs. Cruttenden in 1904.

The property in the first mortgage has a frontage of 250 feet on Stratford avenue, 250 feet on Hough avenue, and has 250 feet on Waterview avenue, and has the wings, where the mystified direct the word of the wings, where the mystified direct are stood laughingly shock her head brought out a piano stool. Then, moor stood, laughingly shook her head and to the delight of the audience and and when this had been applauded she started to retire. The audience, however, would not part with her, and when the conductor came to lead ber off pit, gallery and boxes actually hissed the poor fellow.

There never was a more enthusiastle ovation to a singer in Birmingham, and, thus encouraged, Malibran gracefully waved the conductor off and again sat down to play. She passed from Spanish to German, German to two songs instead of six!

There was a lively scene behind the curtain when Malibran at length retired. But to the acting director, who fumed and cried, "Madam, you have played us an astonishing trick!" she only smiled and said, "I told you that I would right myself if you wronged me—and I did."—New York Post.

A diamond with a flaw is better than common stone without any imperfections.-Chinese Proverb.

The Eternal Motorist. Mrs. Gossip-They do say that her husband has acquired locomotor ataxia. Mrs. Parvenu-I don't think much of those cheap cars. My husband has an imported one.-Smart Set.

Household Hint. To mark table linen-leave the baby and some jam alone at the table for five minutes.-Judge.

You cannot lead men into truth by tricks.-Aesop.

WANT ADS. CENT A WORD

TUWLAND'S

Bridgeport, Conn., Wednesday, July 7, 1909.

The Weather-Fair tonight and to-

A robe tor less.

All the handsome semiready white dresses are to sell at less.

They are beauties. Fine white fabric. Embroidered in rich and tasteful patterns and in fine manner.

In complete patterns that encircle bottom of skirt and that are carried out in harmonizing design upon fabric

$5.50 robes are $4 $7.50 robes are $10.50 robes are $8 $14 robes are $11.50 $16 robes are $12. $14.50 $17 robes are $18 robes are $15 Center aisle, front.

New outing shoes for children.

Made like Indian moccasins, there are some new and great outing shoes for little

They are of the leather that is used for belting usually. It is naturally tough but it is treated by a process. which gives it extra toughness and flexibility.

In shape, these slippers are specially comfortable for they are more slippers than shoes—and will wear and wear and wear. Fine for shore or camp.

According to size, $1.25 $1.45 and $1,65.

Sandals and other cool shoes.

Barefoot sandals for little folks and big girls are about as cool as anybody could

Good ones wear well and long, too. Wherever the summer is to be spent, they are excellent foot-wear for young folks.

Best sort has welted sole. Sells at $1.15 to $1.65. Other sorts, of stout leather and in good shapes,—45c to 95c.

Outing oxford ties with stout welt-sewed soles,-$1.15 to $1.45.

Rubber-soled tennis-shoes and bathing-shoes.—45c and White canvas oxford ties, according to size,—59c to Shoe store, main floor, rear.

Log-cabin rugs tor summer homes,

Here are rugs you can use in the summer home without fear of injury by weather conditions.

Young folks can come in from a tramp and if they do bring in dirt it will not spoil the floor-covering.

No matter how soiled they become, a laundering will bring them back to original clearness.

They are made of rags; just like the rag rugs of Grandomther's day. They are homelike, and attractive, and full of service.

18 by 36 inches, -60c 27 by 54 inches, $1 30 by 60 inches, $1.25 36 by 72 inches,-$1.50 4 by 7 feet,—$3 6 by 9 feet,-$5 8 by 10 feet,-$7 9 by 12 feet,—$10 Third floor.

> THE HOWLAND DRY GOODS CO.